

LUZA Lab – Call for entries

After a remarkable debut in 2017, LUZA Festival returns to Loulé in November 2018 for its second edition. The Algarve International Light Festival promised and fulfilled to be a differentiating event, by positively influencing tourism and trading in the region during the low season.

For 3 days, Loulé welcomed more than 30.000 visitors, who were able to admire artworks from national and international artists, which the raw material was the light. Attendees were able to contemplate and interact with the installations during the event, what surely brought countless advantages to all involved in this great festival of lights.

LUZA intends to be part of the biggest international light festivals, besides to become a national and international reference by promoting culture and traditions from Algarve.

This way, festival includes the LUZA Lab program, that's open to new and young artists who can present and produce their brilliant and innovative ideas at LUZA Festival. A space to show all their creativity and art.
